

Hosanna! Blessed is He Who comes in the name of the Lord!

The Children's Word is a weekly bulletin for Orthodox Christian young people. Copyright 2019 Alexandra Houck.
Email is orthodoxchildrensword (at) gmail.com. Find it each week at myocn.net.

The Children's Word

"Let the little children come to me, and do not forbid them, for to such is the Kingdom of Heaven." Mark 10:14

Sunday, April 21, 2019

Volume 7, Issue 16

A Ministry of the
Orthodox Christian Network

They didn't understand!

Have you ever not understood something at first, but then you did later? Maybe you heard somebody say something, but it didn't mean anything to you...but then later, you really got it.

Today, on this wonderful feast of Palm Sunday, the Gospel reading tells us how our Lord entered Jerusalem. When the crowds heard that Jesus was coming, they waved palm branches and cheered Him on! "And Jesus found a young donkey and sat upon it, as it is written, 'Fear not, daughter of Zion; behold, your king is coming, sitting on a donkey's colt!'"

Those words were written many, many years before Jesus Christ lived on earth. In fact, Jesus's disciples had probably heard them when they had heard the scripture! But it didn't mean anything to them. The Gospel reading today tells us, "His disciples did not understand this at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that this had been written of him and had been done to him." Later on, they really got it!

We don't always understand the Bible at first either! Let's keep reading it, again and again, so we can make connections, and we can understand more and more of God's message to us!

WORD SEARCH

Can you find these words in the jumble?

DONKEY
ENTRANCE
HYMN
JERUSALEM
KASSIANI
PALM SUNDAY
PRAYER
READ THE BIBLE
SCRIPTURE
UNDERSTAND

D F K L T G C H W E B R H E T
Y N O B T I D D R C E G F U Q
M J A V E O X U N A V A E X M
E C E T N H T C D X U H Y J W
L J E K S P M T I S C X R Z S
A E E F I R H O F M O R L I V
S Y N R Y E E K A S S I A N I
U A C T B Y A D N U S M L A P
R S W I R O U P N M Y H P B Q
E Y B D T A X E G U X D R Q U
J L U E Z T N J L F C I A R N
E L V V J I Z C F Z G E Y D Y
O Z K Z A E L H E D X I E U E
E L X E W Y E E K X U Z R G M
Q X L I C U F G Z J A H O X Z

What's in an icon?

Isn't this a beautiful icon of Saint Kassiani?

The painter shows her busy at work, writing the hymn we hear this week!

SAINT KASSIANI THE HYMN WRITER

Today is a happy day, a big feast day in our Church. But tomorrow, things are different. We start to think about all the sad things that happened to our Lord, Jesus Christ. Once, Jesus was talking to His disciples, and a woman came up and asked Him to forgive her. She even cleaned His feet with her hair!

Long ago (1,200 years ago!) a saint named Kassiani wrote a hymn about that story. And on Tuesday night, we will hear this same hymn, written so long ago.

Saint Kassiani was a very beautiful young woman, but she was smart too. When the emperor decided he wanted to get married, she was one of the “bride show.” There were some young women, and the emperor was supposed to pick one of them for his bride!

But Kassiani had other ideas. She wanted to live for Christ, not for the emperor and all his fancy things. She started a monastery, where she wrote many hymns. On Tuesday, we hear the hymn that she is most famous for writing. But did you know that she also wrote a hymn for the service on Christmas Eve? She also wrote a long set of hymns for memorial services, when we remember somebody who has died. So Saint Kassiani keeps giving us her wonderful gifts of beautiful hymns...especially on Holy Tuesday!

We remember St. Kassiani on Holy Tuesday, April 23rd.